For Immediate Release:

WHEELCHAIR BASKETBALL CANADA HIRES NEW DONATIONS & GRANTS MANAGER

(MARCH 28, 2013 - OTTAWA, ON) – Wheelchair Basketball Canada is pleased to announce that Caroline Kayll has joined the organization in the new position of Donations and Grants Manager.

Working closely with the Executive Director and Manager of Marketing and Communications, Kayll will oversee and expand Wheelchair Basketball Canada’s fundraising efforts. She will primarily be responsible for the creation and delivery of a robust and innovative fundraising plan.

“We are thoroughly impressed with Caroline’s enormous degree of enthusiasm and creativity. Her experience within the fundraising, volunteer and corporate sectors, will enable her to immediately contribute to the success of the organization,” said Wendy Gittens, Wheelchair Basketball Canada Executive Director.

Kayll has spent the last ten years building stronger and healthier communities through her work in the not for profit sector. She has been successful in various fundraising roles with the National Arts Centre Foundation, United Way Centriade Ottawa, and Ottawa Food Bank. Most recently she worked as the Partnerships and Development Manager at the Canadian Hospice Palliative Care Association.

Caroline Kayll, Donations and Grants Manager, can be reached by phone at 613-260-1296 ext. 206 or by email at ckayll@wheelchairbasketball.ca
